

ATTACK ON LOTTERY RESENTED BY CUBA

Republic's Foundations
Trembled When Crowder
Memo Hit This Institution.

DRAWINGS NET MILLIONS

Public Pays $7,500,000 Yearly for Three Dozen Shots at $100,000 and Lesser Prizes.

By the Associated Press.
HAWANA, Cuba, July 15.—What happened to Uncle Sam and cricket to John Bull, that and more is the national lottery to Liborio, who is Cuba personified by the cartoonists.
But base ball never has threatened the constitution nor cricket the Magna Carta, while the lottery has shaken the very foundations of the twenty-year-old Cuban republic.

In the significance of the lottery to Liborio is included the willingness of some hundreds of thousands of Cubans to take a chance three times a month and the opportunity this has important in its way, as the ones that insinuated the necessity of cabinet reform and moral clean-up in the collection and disbursement of federal revenues.

Then Republic Trembled.
That was when the foundations of the republic trembled, for, while the other clean-up jobs were not considered unduly difficult, meddling with an institution with such widespread political ramifications as the lottery was a horse of a different color. Intervention reports flow thick and fast, based on the supposition that the administration would not permit foreign hands to tamper with the cogs of the deus ex machina that furnished the motive power for the political steam roller.

Just after the house decided to construct a permanent base of operations for its lottery, offensive the word came from higher up that the reform suggested in one of the memoranda would be brought about by presidential decree, and congress thus would be spared a great deal of complicated and probably disagreeable legislative formalities. The director of the lottery a few days ago held a long conference with President Zayas and it is reported that the president outlined to him what would be done to give the institution the still controls its pristine brightness of 1907. It is not expected that the ax will fall until after the end of the fiscal year, on June 30, before which date congress has promised to enact much vital legislation. To act before then might delay much-needed laws, for nobody knows in what directions and how far the lottery's influence extends.

Suppression Demands Few.
Throughout all the recent hue and cry about the lottery it has been noticeable that demands for its complete suppression have been few and far between. Liborio is just as closely wedded to buying tickets three times a month as he is to raising sugar cane and tobacco.

There are many in Cuba, however, light sleepers for the most part, who are strong for at least one reform—that of putting teeth into the provision which prohibits lottery peddlers from shouting their wares. They have been awakened too many times in the early hours of the three mornings a month on which the blindfolded orphans draw the lucky balls from the cages for the big and little prizes who have only a few hours to dispose of their tickets and would rather have the sure margin that results from the sale than the theoretical chance of 1 in 32,000 of grabbing off $100,000 for $25 or thereabouts.

Lightning Causes Quick Destruction at Beaumont, Tex.
BEAUMONT, Tex., July 15.—More than half a million barrels of distillate, valued at about $1,500,000, went up in smoke late yesterday at the Magnolia Petroleum Company's plant near Beaumont.
The blaze was started by lightning striking an earthen tank, and it quickly spread to three other surface tanks, the contents of all of which burned. The fire still is burning today, and hundreds of laborers are working to save adjoining tanks.

Find 13 Chinese on Ship.
Captain Denied Bail Pending Arraignment on Smuggling Charge.
MIAMI, Fla., July 15.—Capt. W. J.
Stanford of the cabin cruiser Ella Worden, aboard which immigration officers last night found thirteen Chinese huddled in the hold, was being held in the county jail without bail pending arraignment before United States Commissioner Graham late today.
The Ella Worden, en route from Cuba to Philadelphia, had been in port here a week.

Family Row Fatal.
MACON, Ga., July 15.—With bullets in his heart, lungs and head, U. A.
Johnson, a mechanic, who lived near this city, died this morning, following an altercation, officers said, with Wallace and Pledge Sims, brothers of Johnson's wife.
Officers said they learned that the Sims boys accused Johnson of refusing to allow a doctor to attend Mrs.
Johnson, who is ill. The Sims boys declare that when they entered the Johnson home they were forced to shoot him in self-defense. No arrests have been made.

Semi-Annual Round-up

The announcement will be sufficient. Every Washingtonian knows what these twice-a-year events are — the opportunities they offer—the savings they make—when we gather for the "Round-up" all the small lots left from the very busy season—but we have never made the reductions as deep as we have for this sale that begins tomorrow.
